CITY OF CLARKSBURG

Updates from City Manager, Tiffany Fell

Community Engagement Through Local Clubs and Organizations:

Clarksburg's greatest strength has always been its people. While city government provides essential services and leadership, it is the active involvement of our residents that truly shapes the character and future of our community. I encourage citizens to explore and participate in the many clubs and organizations that make our city vibrant and connected.

Groups such as the Clarksburg Photography Club, the Progressive Women's Association (PWA), the library, United Way of Harrison & Doddridge Counties, service clubs, and other civic organizations offer meaningful opportunities to get involved.

These organizations provide residents with ways to share their talents, volunteer their time, and build relationships with others who care about Clarksburg.

Whether capturing the beauty of our city through photography, supporting charitable initiatives, mentoring youth, organizing community events, or participating in local discussions, residents who engage in these groups help strengthen civic pride and community spirit.

Involvement not only benefits the city as a whole but also enriches the lives of those who participate by fostering friendships, leadership skills, and a deeper connection to our community. When residents step forward and get involved, they become partners in shaping Clarksburg's future.

So, I encourage everyone to consider joining a local club or organization. Together, through participation and collaboration, we can continue building a strong, engaged, and thriving Clarksburg.
