CITY OF CLARKSBURG

Updates from City Manager, Tiffany Fell

Inaugural Red, White & Brew Festival a Massive Success:

I want to thank everyone who helped make the City of Clarksburg's first-ever Red, White & Brew Festival a tremendous success.

The community response exceeded all expectations. More than 16 vendors from across West Virginia joined us downtown, offering craft beverages and local products that showcased the best of our state. Their participation helped create a unique and enjoyable experience for residents and visitors alike.

We were also thrilled to welcome more than 300 people to downtown Clarksburg throughout the evening. The event brought energy to our streets, supported local businesses, and provided an opportunity for neighbors and visitors to come together and celebrate our community.

On behalf of the City of Clarksburg, thank you to everyone who attended, volunteered, sponsored, organized, or participated in any way. Your support made our inaugural Red, White & Brew Festival an unforgettable success and demonstrated the strong community spirit that makes Clarksburg special.

We look forward to building on this momentum in the years ahead. Be sure to mark your calendars for next year's Red, White & Brew Festival on Friday, June 4, 2027, from 5:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. at Jackson Square.
