CITY OF CLARKSBURG

Updates from City Manager, Tiffany Fell

Clarksburg First Friday's To Bring Jazz Stroll and PODA Party to Downtown This Friday:

Clarksburg will host its First Friday celebration this Friday, May 1st, featuring a lively Jazz Stroll and PODA Party in Downtown.

Residents and visitors can enjoy live music, local dining, and beverages throughout the evening in a welcoming, walkable atmosphere.

Food and drink options will include James & Law Company (with Cosmo's Kitchen Food Truck), Maya's on Main (adult beverages with food from Washington Square), Kelly's 2.0 (full menu and adult beverages), and PWA at the Uptown Event Center (food available for purchase).

This event continues to showcase downtown's vibrancy, support small businesses, and strengthen community engagement.

Everyone is encouraged to come out and experience the energy and culture of Clarksburg.

First Friday Chairman Mike Spatafore said he is excited about what is forthcoming this weekend.

“Our ultimate goal is to get people to come downtown for fun activities and support our local businesses and restaurants,” Spatafore said.
