CITY OF CLARKSBURG

Updates from City Manager, Tiffany Fell

See Something, Say Something

On September 13, 2020 council member Jim Malfregoet, the city's current mayor, was shot while attempting to prevent a car-jacking at his home. A call to 911 saved his life. After over a month of recovering in the hospital, Malfregoet returned to service as a council member and began his tradition of encouraging citizens, during the council member comment period at the end of every regular city council meeting, if they "see something, say something-- call 911."

This past July, when he was selected to serve as mayor, Malfregoet made a renewed effort to spread his message through the creation and installation of signs reminding citizens that they can make a difference by reporting crimes and suspicious activity. Over the coming months, twenty-two signs will go up around the city declaring: "See Something - Say Something - Call 911."

Call 9-1-1

Most people in America are well trained to call 911 in the event of a medical emergency; but what if you are unsure if something is an emergency? 911 should always be called in life-threatening situations or to report crimes in progress. If you are reporting something suspicious, that may or may not be a crime and no one is in eminent danger, it is preferable to call a non-emergency number to report your concern.

Police Non-Emergency Number: 304-626-4900

Clarksburg has a non-emergency number that can be called to report anything to Clarksburg Police that doesn't warrant calling an emergency number. This would include suspicious activity like seeing people in or around an abandoned property-- a common problem in Clarksburg.
